Pathways

Overview

Pathway is a partnership with MUW, YMCA, and Franklin that will allow teachers specific time every other week to provide targeted instruction. Students will participate in tutoring or enrichment activities during this time. The remaining students will go to the YMCA to participate in an activity-based social development program that reinforces trust, responsibility, communication, respect, cooperation, safety, etc.

GUIDELINES

Teachers and Assistant Teachers will stay in the classroom and provide select students with targeted instruction. Teachers will decide which students attend Pathway each week. It will be based solely on the fact of who she wants to keep in the classroom for small group instruction. Students with behavior concerns should benefit from the social development program

Tutoring Strategy

Teachers will take the opportunity to provide half or more of the class tutoring.

Tutoring will be a review or preview of core skills.

Teachers will alternate providing students on different academic levels tutoring sessions.

Teachers will provide a differentiated approach with materials and assessments.
(no worksheets)

Assistant Teachers will also provide tutoring during this time.
